

Vanadventures Consultation Work Agreement

I, _____ (your name) engage Ron Tanner as a consultant for the purpose of converting my cargo van into a camper van.

I will $40 per hour for his services. These include a) his research of parts and information I might need, b) his discussions with me on the phone, c) any field trips he may take on my behalf (to examine products etc.), d) any phone calls he may make on my behalf, and e) any email questions he may answer. Any research of parts, information, field trips or phone calls made on my behalf must be requested with an approximate cost estimate and approved (by me) in writing by email prior to such services.

I will pay him via PayPal in advance for these services, in increments of $40 -200. , as needed. In doing so, I understand that I am availing myself of his opinions only. I cannot, and will not, hold him accountable for any injury or damage to myself or my property. I take sole responsibility for my own health and safety and for the welfare of my vehicle and for any changes I make to this vehicle. This includes my seeking out experts to double check any work done to my vehicle to ensure it is wholly safe and sound.

I understand that I may terminate my working relations with House Love at any time and receive a refund of any advance payment I may have made that has not been accounted for with consultation. Conversely, Ron Tanner may terminate -- without cause -- his working relationship with me at any time.

Ron Tanner will keep an accounting of the minutes used for consultation and invoice me accordingly, as needed but no less frequently than monthly.
